We Dedicate This Book

to

We dedicate this book to the audiences who make the performances of "The Porter Story" a success. They stand behind the performers applauding and encouraging them to greater heights. On the courts, on the stage, in the classroom, or any place where the LTHS students are in the spotlight, they are there. Because of their interest we want to show our appreciation by putting our audiences in the spotlight and applauding them.

the Audiences . . .

Foreword

The dreams of a new auditorium now have been transformed into a reality. The James M. Smith Auditorium is a memorial to a man who served this community for 27 years as superintendent of LTHS.

November 7, 1958, was a memorable day for students and faculty members alike, for it was then that the whole student body assembled as a unit in the beautiful new auditorium. Because the completion of this auditorium has opened a whole new world for the dramatic and music departments, the 1959 LOCK staff chose the theme of the theatre to relate the saga of LTHS. The 1,300 students, the administration, faculty, and staff comprise the theatrical company which is now "on stage." Each group has a part in producing "The Porter Story," a play in two exciting acts. The play is about to begin, the actors are in place, the spotlight is focused, and the curtain is going up . . .

the Directors and Producers

The members of the Board of Education are: Aldo Anzzolin; Felix L. Borio; V. Park Widner; W. Melvin Blogg; Carroll H. Ward, president; John Verkian, attorney and secretary; William Babich; Ernest Swenson, Jr., vice president; and Dr. William H. Blatnik.

Producers Promote Education

Mrs. Faye Avers, school board secretary, has a full time job keeping up the records of the board's activities.

Before a stage production can be successful, it is necessary that there be reasonable assurance that individuals who possess the powers of clairvoyance, high intellect, and financial independence are available to carry out the master plan developed by the playwright. Here at LTHS, the directors are the members of the faculty; the producers are the Board of Education.

When carrying out the master plan, the faculty and the Board of Education must work together using foresight to insure a successful school year.

We, the members of the cast, are most grateful to our capable producers and directors who have guided us throughout a memorable year.

Mr. Edward Flink, our principal, works to improve the moral standards and character of the LTHS students.

As director of curriculum, Mr. Daymond Aiken counsels the students and faculty alike.

Honored Students Promote

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are the basis for selection of members to the National Honor Society. These honored students are chosen by the faculty. Each year the new members names are announced at a very impressive assembly.

This is the second year that Lockport High has had an active chapter composed of students elected in their junior year. Leading the chapter this year were Gary James, president; Wayne Johnson, vice president; Sandy Rediehs, secretary; and Pat Boland, treasurer.

Last year the chapter sponsored an emblem contest to choose an emblem for the school. This year's chapter continued the project and promoted the emblem throughout the school.

New Emblem . . .

Meadows, Sandy Leinbach, Kathee Murray. FRONT ROW: JoAnn Collofello, Holly Lea, Betty Anderson, Mary Ann Becker, Susan Brown, Carolyn Yates, Michele Curtis, Margaret Bennett.

Sandra Rediehs accepts the DAR award given annually to one senior girl who shows the outstanding qualities of dependability, leadership, service, and patriotism.

This year the DeKalb Agriculture Award was presented to Paul Bannister for his outstanding work in the Future Farmers of America.

Along with the American Legion Award, honorable mention was given to Carole Pauly, Cheryl Sass, June Anderson, Shirley Smith, Pat Boland, Larry Schrock, Steve Partak, George Brunner, Bonnie Ayers, and Amy Staples.

Students Recognized

in Awards Assembly . . .

Steve Partak receives Veterans of Foreign Wars Award from Mr. Edward Flink.

Mrs. Hanson of the Lockport Womans' Club congratulates Chuck Mink, the recipient of the Art Award. The others are Betty Landon, Conservation Camp; Dorothy Kristich, Music Camp; Virginia Ward, Music Camp.

Ruth Hatton and Karen Rungaitis are the proud winners of the newly established Lockport Womans' Club Scholarships presented to them by Mrs. Rozich.

A special award was given to Ruth Hatton for her high scholastic average during her three years at LTHS.

Hours of Hard

As a representative of the American Legion, Reverend Bengston congratulates Wayne Johnson and Sandra Rediehs after their receiving of the American Legion Award.

Those students who completed four years of high school without any absences are Pat Rauworth, Jim Plankar, Cheryl Sass, Floyd Schwab, Gerald Richards, John Adelman, Rose Anna Hacher, Susanne Burcham, Randall Carroll, Maxine Gill, and Kenneth Kling.

Valedictorian Sandra Rediehs shows her pleasure as Dr. Blatnik presents the award to her.

Work Pay Off . . .

The salutatorian of the senior class, Shirley Smith, smiles proudly after receiving her award.

One of the star personalities is Steve Partak who participated actively in basketball and golf and other activities.

Wayne Johnson, a good leader as well as a hard worker, was recognized as an outstanding speaker and was chosen to speak at graduation.

Stars in the

Sandy Rediehs proved that beauty and brains can be combined when she was named valedictorian.

The pleasant smile and the gavel of band presidency designated Jerry Lundeen as an outstanding senior.

As co-editor of the TIMES and co-president of Student Council, Shirley Smith spent many hours serving her school.

Spotlight . . .

While June Anderson was president of the Future Nurses, she prepared herself for her career.

Cheryl Sass established a reputation for being a dependable worker and was worthy of her many honors.

A happy-go-lucky girl with pretty red hair is Carole Pauly, a dependable worker in many activities.

A girl who took an active part in Student Council, Band, TIMES, and FTA is Amy Staples.

Pat Boland revealed his talents when he did outstanding work on the Student Council and TIMES.

"The Porter Story"

Students spent many hours on floats in order to finish them in time for the homecoming parade.

To symbolize our hope for a victory, Harvey was burned in effigy at the homecoming bonfire.

After the bonfire the cheerleaders lead a snake dance through the athletic field.

The first place float was entered by the Girls' Athletic Association.

Another Another

Enthusiasm, school spirit, and anticipation characterized homecoming, making it a huge success. Weeks before the set date of October 17, work was begun on the many floats and details were planned for the festivities of the day. The sophomore class, under the leadership of Mr. Rutter, was in charge of the homecoming events. The student co-chairmen appointed committee heads and committees; the work began.

To arouse school spirit, a bonfire was held at the athletic field the night before the big game. Immediately following the bonfire, the cheerleaders led a snake dance around the field.

Of the twenty-two floats entered in the parade, second place was taken by the sophomore's spider and honorable mention by the band's float, the purple people eater.

The kids yell a favorite cheer to back our team and to encourage a win.

Homecoming Success

The highlight of the homecoming was the coronation of the queen and king. The senior attendant, Bernie Grikstas, was escorted by Bill O'Neil. Judy Novak represented the junior class with Jim Johnson as her escort. Elected to represent the sophomore class was Carole Rediehs. Her escort was Steve Partak. The freshman attendant, Dennie Johnson, was accompanied by Gary Moores.

The bonfire, the parade, and the dance are over and only the memories remain.

Striking a lovely pose are Queen Sandy Rediehs and King Jerry Pius, who reigned over all the homecoming festivities.

The Homecoming King and Queen and their court pause from their dancing for this regal portrait.

"I REMEMB

The combined efforts of Miss Joan Opyt, student teacher; Marilyn Manthey, student director; and Mr. Tipler, director; made the Junior Class Play a huge success.

On November 20 and 21 of 1958 the junior class presented a comedy by John Van Druten entitled "I Remember Mama." This play was adapted from Kathryn Forbes' "Mama's Bank Account."

The story showed how Mama, with the help of her husband and Uncle Chris, brought up her children in their common San Francisco home in the early 1900's. Mama, a kind, considerate manager, sees her children through childhood, succeeds in educating them, and sees one of her daughters begin her career as a writer. Mama's sisters and uncle add comedy and a minor tragedy, while the frolicing of the children managed to keep every one in pleasant turmoil.

On March 12 and 13 the Seniors, under the capable direction of Mr. Tipler, faculty sponsor, and Carole Pauly, student director, presented "Arsenic and Old Lace," a hilarious three act play by Joseph Kesselring.

The comical Brewster family provided humorous entertainment throughout the play. Teddy Brewster, preferably Teddy Roosevelt, with his aunts — Abby and Martha Brewster — put Mortimer in many difficult situations faster than he could solve them.

Cheryl Sass presents Mr. Tipler and Carole Pauly with gifts to show their appreciation for their help and guidance in directing the Senior Class Play.

"Silver Bell Symphony"

Passing under the canopy at the Christmas Dance are Diane Mason and her escort Jim Plankar.

The Christmas tree in the center of the dance floor sets the stage for the "Silver Bell Symphony."

During intermission these couples added to the enjoyment of the dance by talking about the events of the evening.

Queen Marge and King Bob lead the couples in the grand march in a royal fashion.

"Stardust"

Gene Victor's Orchestra provides the background and music for these two couples, Irene Fox and Mike Ladrick and Terry Legan and Joy Purdy.

Marva Poston and Roger Philpott were the king and queen for the Student Council Spring Dance on March 7, 1959. Along with the heavenly music of Gene Victor's Orchestra, soft billowing clouds and glimmering stars were symbolic of the "Stardust" theme.

Queen Marva and King Roger dance to the theme song "Stardust" after their coronation.

Donna Gray and Bill Peterson show enthusiasm as they concentrate on a popular dance step.

These smiles from Marlen Nordstrom and Duncan Bachmann indicate that they are enjoying themselves at the Student Council Dance.

There's the doorbell. I'd better hurry!

Oh, a big box! I bet it's a nosegay.

Well, what do you know, I'm in the car, formal and all!

"Colonial Cotillion"

TIME: May 16, 1959

PLACE: LTHS Gymnasium

CAST: A typical couple (enacted by Elizabeth Alexander and Pat Boland, our King and Queen)

"Colonial Cotillion" was produced by special arrangement with the Class of 1960.

SCENE I

She: Strolling along this path, I almost feel as though I'm in the South during the colonial era.

He: Same here. Why, aren't those rolling hills just beautiful? Oh, look at the little white bridge up ahead.

She: A real bridge, and we get to cross it. Such a quaint garden, isn't it? The flowers and foliage are so life-like.

He: Just feast your eyes on that marvelous mansion! Shall we go inside?

You don't mean to say this is the last dance? So soon?

Now, let me see. What do I want? Any suggestions?

The perfect ending for a perfect evening . . .

Sets the Scene . . .

SCENE II

She: Why, it's a ballroom! The colonial figures on that lovely mural seem to reflect our mood and dress. And aren't the walls decorated nicely? Oh, and such attractive windows!

He: The bandstand's in the center; now that's different. Isn't it beautiful?

She: Oh yes! The fireplace seems to add a touch of elegance to the room.

He: It's intermission already. Don Young's playing the organ and two Arthur Murray dancers will entertain.

She: Don't Liz and Pat make a lovely royal couple?

He: The last dance? So soon?

She: Yes, but this prom will be long-remembered. It was fabulous, wasn't it?

He: Sure was!

The King and Queen, Pat Boland and Elizabeth Alexander express sheer delight after being crowned by Stu Brown, junior class president.

Aren't those the junior and senior class officers dancing with their dates?

Shirley Smith and Pat Boland, co-editors, and Mr. Howe, sponsor, are the critics of their own paper.

Every month the people in Porterman anxiously anticipate the distribution of their newspaper, the Times.

The paper presents the news concerning the scholastic, social, and athletic events of our school and also provides much entertainment in its columns. However, people seldom realize the work which is necessary for such a publication.

Approximately 75 staff members contributed to the success of this year's Times. In addition to producing an excellent paper, the staff was also responsible for the columns which appeared in the Spectator and Lockport Herald.

Only one-fourth of the money necessary to print the Times was derived from subscribers; the rest was provided by generous advertisers. A plan was inaugurated this year by which subscribers were eligible for gifts given by local merchants. This served to stimulate interest in the paper and thus increase its funds.

The students find that the Times is an informative and enjoyable publication, and they are truly proud of this representation of the journalistic interests at Lockport High.

The Word

The LOCK book's success is due chiefly to the leadership and helpful advice which is always rendered by the LOCK editors, Pat Treseder, co-editor-in-chief; Carolyn Yates, assistant editor; Patti Feithen, assistant editor; and June Anderson, co-editor-in-chief.

The news is out! For the past nine months, LTHS students have been expecting the publication of the 1959 LOCK. Just as in the production of any good play, there has gone a great deal of effort on the part of some fifty students, who comprise the LOCK editorial staff. These students, many of whom you have probably seen arranging pictures or running errands, have put in a great deal of time during and after school and often on Saturdays.

Of course, no yearbook would be complete without the presence of a business staff. These students, nearly seventy-five of them, have appeared in homerooms selling LOCK subscriptions and as workers at the weekly LOCK sponsored dances. The business staff also conducted the election of our yearbook sweetheart, a new addition to the LOCK.

To all these people, both the editorial and business staffs, and their sponsor, Mr. Sampson, is due the credit and appreciation for the 1959 LOCK.

Jim Breihan and Carole Rediehs, with Mr. Sampson's guidance, capably led the business staff.

Working hard on decorations for "Stardust" are Betty Anderson, Betty Landon, Susan Brown, Jerry Lundein, and Sandy Pierson.

Behind the scenes of the LTHS activities stands the Student Council — the student government and activity leader of the school. Along with the co-presidents, the council is run by its board, the representatives from the forty-four homerooms, and the seventeen heads of the various organizations and classes.

Many functions were carried on throughout the year. Due to the council, our used books were successfully sold. More than 1500 Christmas cards were distributed to students by the Student Council Christmas card service. A special committee was formed to be in charge of pep assemblies. The council members also carried on the function of the "lost and found" department.

The Students' Choice

The particular highlights of the council included the two dances "Casual Capers" in November and "Stardust" in March. LTHS also played host for the South Suburban Student Council Congress held in December. From these group meetings of this congress many timely and interesting ideas were exchanged among the participating schools.

All of these various profitable deeds were accomplished through the guidance of the faculty sponsor, Mr. Pryor.

FNC and JRC Lead

Future "ladies-in-white" is a term which applies to the members of the Future Nurses' Club. In keeping with their ideal "giving a helping hand" this well co-ordinated organization gave assistance in the health room and kept records for the freshman physicals and the staff tuberculosis examinations.

To commence their fall activities, the future nurses had their annual picnic. At the candlelighting ceremony, the most impressive event of the year, the freshmen were formally inducted into the organization. During the course of the year the Lockport Woman's Club presented the seniors with their Future Nurses pins.

In order to obtain sufficient funds for the preceding activities, the future nurses worked checking coats and admitting spectators at the pass gate during many of our home ball games.

Under the capable leadership of the sponsors, Miss Margaret Taylor, faculty advisor; Miss Rosemary Blechschmidt, R.N.; Miss Nancy Grady, R.N.; and Mrs. Jack Roberts, this club has attained its goal and deserves the spotlight for a job well done.

Miss Taylor, sponsor; Audrey Nordstrom, vice-president; Barb Baxa, treasurer; Bea Heggerty, corresponding secretary; June Anderson, president; and Virginia Carlson, secretary; demonstrate their new-found knowledge of the thermometer.

Participation was the essential element in the receiving of a Junior Red Cross award. A newly inaugurated point system was executed in order to add an incentive for members to participate in the various activities.

Students were asked to contribute to an enrollment drive, thereby becoming a member. The efforts of the entire club materialized when a needy veteran's family was given food and gifts for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Contributions from the entire student body filled LTHS's share of the huge chest sent overseas from Will County.

77A and 77A

The Edward F. Worst Club, Future Teachers of America, is designed to extend opportunities for a closer, more detailed account of teaching to young people who are interested in the profession.

Guest speakers, panel discussions, educational movies, a picnic, the annual Mother and Daughter Tea, and a few other activities highlight this year's combination educational-pleasure program.

In order to become better acquainted with fundamental education, juniors and seniors visited grade schools to observe and teach. This "on the spot" observation gave them a first-hand opportunity to decide the grade level they prefer to teach.

The background which these young people received while participating in the preceding activities will be invaluable in preparing them for their careers as Future Teachers of America.

New at LTHS this year is the Chess Club under the direction of Mr. Beseman and Mr. Hess.

The Chess Club consists of twenty-seven members who compete in their respective tournaments. The club meets every other week in the school library. There are no officers. The club was organized this year to have fun and to express their mental abilities by proper methods of concentration.

On The Musical Scale . . .

The choral department, under the direction of Mr. Robert Howell, has really grown in the past school year.

A Freshman Boys' Glee Club, which sang at various student gatherings, was formed. They did an especially good job in our annual Christmas program. Madrigals is the select group from the A Cappella Choir. Being such a versatile group, they were able to sing light popular music or present classical music in a very professional manner to churches, club organizations and our student body.

The A Cappella Choir spent their entire eighth period practicing for appearances or just singing for their own pleasure. This practice was rewarded by wonderful performances in the Veterans' Day Program, Christmas Concert, and the annual Spring Concert.

Eagerness and sweet voices make the Freshman-Sophomore Girls' Chorus a pleasure to listen to. A specialized group of various girls sang last winter on the Joliet radio station, WJOL.

The main purpose of each of these groups is the same — bring the pleasure of music to others.

The Band Plays On . . .

The Band has played in many programs including those for Armistice Day and Christmas.

On the program of the annual spring concert held April 12 was Shostakovich's Symphony Number Five Finale and Liszt's Second Hungarian Rhapsody.

The marching Band has showed its abilities by entertaining during the football games and in many parades including Homecoming, Memorial Day, and Halloween.

Silver Bell Symphony was the name of the Band's annual Christmas dance, which was held December 27. From the seniors of the Band, Margy Glasser and Bob Tucker were chosen king and queen. This is an evening never to be forgotten by those who attended.

April 18 was the date of the Band Banquet. Jerry Lundein, president of the Band and master of ceremonies for the evening, introduced four seniors who gave reviews of their four years in the Band.

The Pep Band, composed of a small group of students, add a variation to such things as the basketball games and the assemblies.

Much pleasure has been brought to everyone by the Band, under the direction of Ernest Caneva and Herbert Tatroe.

The colorful band float won honorable mention in the homecoming parade.

"The Porter Story"

Let's Have a Cheer

"Fight team, fight! Fight team, fight!" Pep was the cheerleaders by-word throughout the sports season at Lockport High. With a smile on their faces and victory on their minds, they promoted school spirit and led our teams on to victory.

Some of their ideas for peppy cheers and good sportsmanship came from attending the cheerleaders camp at Illinois State Normal University during the summer.

Now it is our turn to give them a cheer, "Yea cheerleaders!"

Sandy and Debbie, squad captains, organize the cheers and provide leadership for the cheerleaders.

This enthusiastic group cheers for the basketball team at the Catholic High game. The sign, "Beat the Hill out of the Hillman," was made by Pep Club members.

School Spirit Stressed

The Pep Club includes students who are full of pep and have lots of school spirit. These enthusiastic students attend all the home games and sponsor a bus to away games.

Did you see the clever posters announcing games? Did you buy a Porter pin or a program? The people you saw selling these articles were, of course, Pep Club members.

A pat on the back to the Pep Club for a job well done!

Looking over the finished product of their work, a basketball program, are the Pep Club officers, Bonnie Ayers, vice president; Cheri Sass, president; Kathee Murray, treasurer; and Margie Startz, secretary.

Representing All Sports . . .

To unite all the varsity letter winners is one of the purposes of the Letterman's Club. It was established about two years ago under the auspices of Mr. Kappmeyer. All the coaches acted as sponsors, Mr. Beseman being head sponsor.

The winning of the "L" is only one of the requirements for membership. A candidate for election must be passing in all academic subjects and receive an unanimous vote by the other members.

Acting as officers for this year were Jerry Pius, president; Steve Partak, vice-president; Larry Schrock, secretary; and Chuck Stanley, treasurer.

Larry, Jerry, Steve, and Chuck agree after reading the clubs achievements that membership in the "L" Club will soon be sought by all sportsmen.

For the second year in a row, the Porters, coached by Ed Cisler, opened the season with a victory and then failed to capture a win in the eight following games. Lockport opened with a 13-7 win over Evergreen Park, followed by a heartbreaking 6-0 defeat at the hands of Joliet Catholic High. Again the margin was a scant 6 points as Kankakee downed the Porters in their South Suburban league opener.

Unable to cope with the defenses of the heavier teams, Lockport fell to Leyden of Franklin Park, Thornton of Harvey, Thornton Fractional, Blue Island, Bloom, and Argo, finishing in the conference cellar.

On the bright side of the sub-.500 campaign is the fact that the Porters will have ten returning lettermen, including two all area candidates, thus forecasting a successful season.

Jim Lund anchors the medley relay team in a victory over Argo.

The 1958-59 varsity swimmers under Coach Chuck Beseman posted an even 4-4 won-lost record in dual meet competition. In spite of a seemingly mediocre season, the tankmen smashed 9 of 13 school records this year.

The Porter webfeet earned a 4-2 record against tough South Suburban League opposition; emerging victorious over Argo twice, Thornton Fractional once, and Leyden once, while falling to conference champions Thornton of Harvey and to Bloom of Chicago Heights.

In the SSL conference meet, Andy Djerf, a standout all season, placed third in the individual medley and fourth in the 200 yard free style. Tom Johnson and Jim Lund placed fifth in the 50 and the 100 yard free style respectively, while the free style relay team of Tom Johnson, Ed Rossetto, Jim Lund and Mike Gleason earned a third.

Three sophomores, Lance Sindo, Gary French and Howard Heeg, earned enough points for varsity letters. These underclassmen all placed high in the sophomore conference meet and are expected to form the backbone for next year's varsity squad.

Opening their season with a draw, a difficult year for the matmen was started. The efforts put into the matches by the matmen added the needed vigor. Overcoming the handicap of losing excellent wrestlers, they ended the year with a 2-11-1 won-lost-draw record. In spite of defeats, 6th in the Conference, 5th in the District, and 11th in the Sectional were achieved in the tournament meets.

Responsible for the 6th place in the Conference matches were Vernon Voss 165 lb., George Brunner 154 lb., who both acquired 4th in the matches, and Bill Rumchak 95 lb. and Stuart Brown 120 lb. who both received 3rd.

Stuart Brown, a 12-0-1 defendant, placed a brilliant 1st in the District Tournament and 3rd in the Conference and Sectional Tournaments. The 120 lb. matman received great honors for the work he did.

Porters Capture

"This is the best varsity baseball team that Lockport has had in the last several years," said Coach Bill Kappmeyer of his 1959 Porter team which posted a 10-7 won-lost record. This record includes cancellation forfeits over Naperville, Bloom and Joliet Township.

After a slow start, the team displayed exceptionally good defense in winning five of the last seven contests. Our boys could do no wrong while capturing the district crown with a 9-2 decision over Lemont, but they fell apart in their 6-2 loss to Oswego in sectional play.

Pitcher, first-baseman Jim Long heads the list of 10 returning lettermen for next year's squad. Long led the team in hitting with a .356 average, and held a 2-2 record as a pitcher. In the latter department he was second only to Jerry Pius, a senior, who had a 3-1 record. Other returning veterans are Vic Sullins, Keith LeGrand, Jim Abrams, Jim Mance, Jack Alexander, Ed Edson, Jerry Cunico, Bruce Fulton, and Ron Baxa.

Golf Champs

Steve Partak, Jim Johnson, Chuck Stanley, and Larry Schrock represented Lockport in the SSL Conference play. Steve shot a 79 which gave him second place honors along with Jim who also scored a 79. After a play off, Jim was awarded fourth place for the conference. Third place honors went to Chuck who scored 80. Larry received top honors with a 78.

South Suburban League

The 1959 golf team coached by Ed Hill reached an all time high by being Lockport's only team to place first in a South Suburban League contest.

Led by the two returning senior lettermen, Larry Schrock and Steve Partak, the linksmen went ahead to post a 13 and 6 record.

To top off a very successful season, Larry Schrock, topping all previous records, received medalist honors in SSL competition and Steve Partak represented Lockport at the state golf tourney. Although Steve did not capture any of the top places, he represented our team very well and deserves to be congratulated along with the rest of the '59 golf team.

Lockport was capably represented downstate by Steve Partak, who shows his winning skill on a tee off.

Cindermen Place Sixth

Get on your mark! Get set! Go! was a familiar expression heard by members of the track team. The cindermen fared quite well in the tough South Suburban League this year, bringing home a sixth place. The team was trained under capable hands of Coach Rogers and Mr. Cisler, his assistant. The Cindermen were represented at state by Chris Vancura, Ed Frazier, and Dennis Hill.

Selmo Campbell has the look of determination as he tries for a successful jump.

Representing Lockport in state competition were Dennis Hill, Coy McElrath, and Chris Vancura.

Get on Your Mark!

Jim Smithberg, Vernon Vose, Glen Haver, and Derwin Cleveland stand ready waiting for the starting signal to sound.

Get Set!

Glen Haver takes the baton from Bill Carr as he gets set to head for the finish line.

Go!

Over the hurdles go two of the trackmen during a practice session.

As they relax, GAA sponsors, Miss Olson, Miss Wieck, and Miss Chapman, review the basketball rules.

The very popular Girls' Athletic Association functions to develop skills, good health, sportsmanship, and character. Tennis, golf, life saving, tumbling, volleyball, basketball, and bowling are the many sports in which the members may participate. The winning team of each class's tournament participate in a basketball and volleyball interclass tournament. Girls showing exceptional skill and sportsmanship are chosen for an all star volleyball and basketball interclass tournament. The club also sends contestants into state wide competition for basketball shooting and bowling.

A Mother-Daughter tea, at which the girls receive various awards they've earned during the year, climaxed the activities.

The GAA officers, Bonnie Ayers, president; Davideen Hellberg, secretary; Cheryl Sass, vice-president; and Carol Rediehs, treasurer; discuss future plans for the club's activities.

Dennie Johnson concentrates as she tries for that most desired goal, a strike!

Joyce Baldego, Pam Sanders, and Judy West happily learned they had won the handicap bowling tournament.

In one of the exercises of water safety, Sim Adamson was successful in taking off her shoe while in nine feet of water.

Representing the girls who participated in GAA tennis are Beverly Startz and Joy Purdy.

These Senior girls, under the instructions of Mr. Henry Sick, learned the fundamentals of golf. BACK ROW: Shirley Foschi, Marjorie Olson, Elaine Johnson, Marjorie Glasser, Carol Pauly,

L. T. H. S. Firsts

Since the enrollment at LTHS has steadily increased, the four period lunch hour was introduced.

The Student Council started the campaign system for electing their co-presidents. This was a great improvement over the previous system.

The Chess Club, a new organization which was organized solely for students who enjoy playing chess, was another LTHS first.

German, the newest foreign language here at LTHS, was presented this year for the first time.

A very impressive and important event at the beginning of the year was the first time the new auditorium was used.

Presenting the Freshmen . . .

Ending a school day with a smile are the freshman class officers, John Moroz, vice president; Anita Price, treasurer; Marianne Legan, president; and Barbara Drury, secretary.

We were a little late to find out what the girls enjoyed eating, but their smiles and clean plates show that it must have been good.

Mr. Jackson wasn't kidding when he said "the moon revolves around the earth," proves Jim Goeke and Jack Atkins.

Oh my, it certainly was a great day when we received our class rings. Gloria Fletcher's smile reflects her enthusiasm, while Sandy Cogwin awaits her turn.

The Four Faces of a Senior

BOB BRAINS

He spends many hours studying to achieve success.

EZRA EXTRA-CURRICULAR

He spends his time not only in studying but also in living up to the old saying "All work and no play make Jack a dull boy."

FRED FUTURE

He also spends much time in preparing himself for a career.

GREG GRADUATE

He is filled with excitement as he realizes that graduation is in the near future.

Our High School Days

According to tradition George Brunner, class president, led the class in the flag salute during the commencement exercises.

The realization that high school days are ended is uppermost in Jerry Lundein's mind as he receives his diploma.

Susan Brown and Scott Rodeghiero were chosen by the class of 1959 to lead the commencement processional.

Become a Memory . . .

The commencement exercises were held in the new auditorium. The baccalaureate program on May 31st was the first look into the unknown for the seniors. The graduation ceremony on June 1st climaxed their careers at LTHS. The student addresses given by Amy Staples and Wayne Johnson made us realize our "Destinations Unlimited."

As we seniors received our diplomas, we became "has beens" of LTHS, and our high school days became a memory . . .

Mixed emotions are seen on the faces of these seniors after the baccalaureate program.

Ruth Hatton, Audrey Nordstrom, Michele Curtis, Sandy Leinbach, Carolyn Frampton, Pat Moroz, and Irene Fox.

Oh Lockport Alma Mater,
For you today we stand;
Sweetheart of the prairie,
Your heart is always true.
The portals of our learning
In halls we love so well;
Maroon and white, we're for you,
Our loyalty we pledge.
